WADI RUM FROM DEAD SEA

One Day

One day to Wadi Rum from Dead Sea

- Experience the Magic of Wadi Rum: A Day Safari from the Dead Sea
- Today you will travel from the tranquil Dead Sea to the majestic desert landscapes of Wadi Rum, a UNESCO World Heritage site known as the "Valley of the Moon." The journey south takes approximately 3.5 hours.
- Upon arrival, you'll board a 4x4 driven by an experienced English-speaking Bedouin guide for a 4 to 5-hour adventure, following in the historic footsteps of T.E. Lawrence.
- Explore the Wilderness:
- Climb massive sand dunes, scramble over natural rock bridges (including the Little Bridge and Um Frouth Rock Bridge), explore ancient sites like the Nabatean Temple and Lawrence's Spring, and hike through narrow canyons such as Khazali Canyon. A picnic lunch box will be provided to enjoy amidst the stunning natural beauty.
- Optional Camel Ride:
- For an authentic desert experience, you have the option to add a 1-hour camel ride on your return route for $20 USD per hour.
- After a day of exhilarating exploration, your driver will meet you in the village for a comfortable 3.5-hour drive back to your hotel at the Dead Sea
